

1971 GEORGIAN
Georgetown High School
Georgetown, Massachusetts

DEDICATED TO OUR MRS. CHRISTOFFERSON

Mrs. Patricia Christofferson joined the Georgetown High School faculty in 1967. In this short time she earned the respect and admiration of her colleagues and students. She expertly guided the Class of 1971 through an uncertain Freshman vear. Mrs. Christofferson further displayed her unselfishness by frequently chaperoning dances and lending a hand to those in need. To most of us she was a personal friend in whom we could confide and be certain that our problems were held in confidence. Therefore, Mrs. Christofferson, the Class of 1971 extends its thanks.

Man needs his hands to give meaning to his life. Hands stretched out in friendship . . . hands held in love . . . hands realizing dreams . . . hands expressing thoughts . . . For hands are an extension of man's soul.

CHEERLEADERS

With hands held high they help to sustain the effort on the field. Our cheerleaders displayed enthusiasm, spirit, and determination as did the team. They were the "hidden effort" seldom recognized, but always there.

In position, with hands touching the ground . . . they dash forward. Our team had several good runners but they were not sufficient. The boys persevered and gave their opponents competition to the end. When they grasped the marking stick at the finish line, they had put forth their best.

We all know that it's terrific to win and tough to lose. But the main objective not only for our basketball team but for the fans as well, is to keep the faith. This year the team had to fight . . . fight hard to the very last. With victory as its goal, it pushed ahead using teamwork and strength. The team was an aggressive team. It did not always come out on top for the hopes of the Tech Tourney were squelched by midseason. Yet the enthusiasm of the team and the fans lingered on to the last game.

The 1971 Baseball season was a very disappointing one. The team approached this year with the thought of making a run for the league title. Then disaster struck. Through a combination of poor hitting, bad fielding, and inadequate pitching, the team's record fell to a dismal two wins and fourteen losses. Remarkably, team morale never faltered in view of these circumstances.

If the old saying "It doesn't matter if you win or lose, it's how you play the game" is true, then the girls on the softball team have nothing to be ashamed of. They went into each game with a desire to win that was second to none. Though they didn't win many games, the spirit that prevailed on the field gave their fans many exciting moments.

TRACK

Superior skill and sportsmanship have been displayed this year by the superb efforts of the track team. They emerged as the Junior Varsity Cape Ann League Champs despite the handicap of not having their own track field and facilities. The team overcame these obstacles and was not hindered from attaining a fantastic record.

Although the High School Chorus is relatively small, it has proven to be a group of choice individuals enthusiastic about singing. Merrily they enliven Christmas assemblies, brighten the Evening with the Arts, and add resonance to many other assemblies and performances. Under the direction of Mrs. Helen Hayden, the chorus has evolved into an exuberant group of virtuosos capable of capturing the audience's interest and maintaining it.

GIRLS' CHOIR

A rhythmical succession of gentle melodies resounding in an agreeable musical air is greeted most favorably when sung by the Girls Choir. At diverse school and community functions Mrs. Helen Hayden directed these musically inclined girls, bringing them forth melodiously. Whether performing at the Annual Spring Concert, the Christmas Concert, various school assemblies, or for local organizations and events, the Girls Choir came through practically as professionals giving a note of taste and culture to our school. They were commended by all for their zealous work in behalf of the school.

FOREIGN LANGUAGE CLUB

The Foreign Language Club was formed this year under the direction of Miss Levesque. The enthusiastic response to this new club resulted in several very successful bake sales used to finance a trip to the French restaurant "Chez Dreyfus." A gastronomical adventure to "La Casa Mexico" was also on the menu.

FIRST ROW: R. L'Heureux, L. Pasquale, SECOND ROW: A. Nunan, L. Metcalf, THIRD ROW: L. Jones, N. Baer, Miss Levesque, Advisor, L. Schultz, L. Chick, FOURTH ROW: J. Spofford, E. Meader, R. Crawford, C. Passionate zeal and drive characterizes this large and ambitious organization. Miss Donna Privitera, a coach well skilled in directing and supervising a play, was also adept in recruiting multitudes for the club and in grasping team rather than individual goals. Furthermore the Drama Club contributed its tremendous talents to many charitable organizations in the vicinity. Many nursing homes found themselves serenaded by this congenial group at festive occasions.

Of the many clubs in our school, the Drama Club was the only one participating in the Senior Class Talent Show where they presented a skit well received by the audience, while in April, this hard-working group of young actors performed a hilarious belly-aching, three-act comedy entitled Rest Assured worthy of an academy award.

FUTURE NURSES CLUB

KEY CLUB

The Key Club had its share of difficulties this year. Membership fluctuated, but those who remained loyal helped at the annual Kiwanis Pancake Festival, held a sundar sale, and several other activities under the supervision of Mr. Rohner, a member of the Kiwanis Club.

FIRST ROW: K. Duggan, P. Rosene, L. Haid, K. Stuart, P. Shevlin, N. Gilchrist, SECOND ROW: J. Rogers, L. Gittings, Mrs. Anna Noren — advisor, D. Griswold, B. Wilkins, S. Tarr, P. Seaboyer, M. Manning.

The "future nurses" began the year's activities by attending an open house at Newton Wellesley Hospital. The Christmas season found them spreading good cheer to the residents of the Carlton Home with homemade cookies and other gifts. Under the instruction of Miss Pamela Simpson, physical education teacher, an eight week course in Medical Self Help Training was made available to the club. Mrs. Anna Noren, school nurse and club advisor, made arrangements for the visits of several guest speakers during the year. The girls closed their activities with their annual outing as guests of the Georgetown Nurses Club.

CONCERT BAND

This year, as never before, both the Concert and Stage Bands displayed fine musicianship. They deserved and greatly received high praise and approval from all in the community as well as in the school. A first in GHS history occurred when the Concert and Stage Bands participated in a weekend exchange concert in Colchester, Connecticut.

Under the direction of Mr. George Norris, the band performed as a pep band at football games and rallies as well as a marching band in the surrounding communities. The Christmas and Spring Concerts highlighted the year with a combined concert with Hamilton Wenham Regional and Ipswich High Schools. The Concert and Stage Bands finally closed with a concert on the town green. Perhaps the Band's greatest moment of glory was on graduation night when, after performing, Dr. Frank D. Ashburn, principal speaker, recognized the band as being the finest in the area. The band adds color and life to many school and community functions and is the pride of GHS.

STAGE BAND

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The National Honor Society was founded nine years ago and was named the Helen L. Davis chapter in honor of a longtime devoted teacher, and is generously supported by the Kiwanis Club of Georgetown.

Members are chosen from the Junior and Senior classes on the basis of scholarship, leadership, service, and character.

This year, as in the past two years, the members were treated to a Red Sox baseball game following the Spring induction.

JR. NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The Ellsworth H. Welch Chapter of the National Junior Honor Society was formed in 1962. Inductions are held each spring for students in grades seven through nine. Sophomores who were in the Society the previous year remain in the Society, however no new Sophomores are chosen as members. Students are selected on the basis of scholarship, service, leadership, citizenship, and character.

BOTTOW ROW: K. Wood, L. Pasquale, A. Nunan — president, M. Nee, A. Maguire — secretary. TOP ROW: N. Baer, C. Skeirik, M. Flannery — treasurer, C. Flynn, H. Garnache, S. Gynan — vice president.

STUDENT COUNCIL

This year it was difficult for the Student Council to get perfect attendance at meetings due to the suspension of Activities Period. Therefore they met during lunch at least once or twice a week.

The Student Council lent a helping hand to a deserving Senior by offering its first scholarship awarded on the basis of contribution to the school. The first recipient was Charlie Flynn. To finance this project, candles were sold at Christmas and a dance was held in March.

In addition to these activities, the Student Council hosted three radio programs for WNBP in Newburyport. They sponsored several surveys and held an exchange day with the Rockport High Student Council. They discussed privileges, policies, and compared procedures in both schools. All told, the efforts and endeavors of the Council proved fruitful and rewarding.

ECOLOGY CLUB

Students concerned with our ecological situation formed a new club under the direction of Mrs. Christofferson. They attended town ecology meetings and accomplished a few projects such as publicizing an ecology speech at G.H.S. by Congressman Hatch, helping out at recycling day, and planting vegetation on the hillside behind the school to prevent soil crosion.

This first year was mildly successful. With the departure of the advisor the future of the club is now in doubt.

CLUB

Although no organized Ski Club existed this year, Mr. Stuart Fall planned and chaperoned a ski trip to Killington, Vermont during the February vacation. The trip was a great success due to a large turnout, an abundance of snow, and agreeable weather. Our slalom experts, intermediates, and novice skiers regretted that more of such trips were not available.

CLASS DAY

The Little Man

Who put tabasco sauce in the beef-a-roni?

Best Build???

Traditionally the Senior Class is given one spring afternoon to entertain the underclassmen in whatever manner desired.

This year the Graduating class presented a series of skits dealing with the school committee, the quality of school lunches, and the cancelled New York trip. By popular demand Kenneth Morse returned with his award winning performance from the Talent Show.

Despite disorganization in the beginning, this year's Class Day materialized successfully.

The mechanics behind the Little Man.

GRADUATION

DR. FRANK D. ASHBURN Headmaster — Brooks School

Graduation night and the usual questions . . . will I be nervous? Will I cry? Then the moment arrives. You march in and all your friends and relatives are staring at you with pride. First come the honor essays, the awards, and finally the diplomas. Before you know it the evening is over and so is school. Twelve years of your life have ended this evening. The doors of the past are closed and the hands of the future are held out to you. All that remains is to reach out and see what tomorrow will bring.

Patricia Merrill — Valedictorian Thomas Rapisarda — Salutatorian Helene Garnache — Honor Essayist

ELISABET NORDENSTAD

SWEDISH EXCHANGE STUDENT

This year Georgetown High had its first foreign exchange student. Elisabet Nordenstad arrived in the United States in September, 1970 from Stockholm, Sweden. Her opportunity to study in the States resulted from an application to the Student International Service. She was one of eighteen out of one hundred and fifty applicants to be accepted for the program. While in Georgetown, Elisabet was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Sullo of Baldpate Road.

Elisabet made many lasting friendships this year and addressed many local organizations about Sweden. At G.H.S. she was a member of the Drama Club and served on numerous school committees. On Class Day she was voted pretitest, tallest, and best eyes girl by her fellow Seniors. During Spring vacation, Elisabet travelled to Washington with SIS (Student International Service) for a tour of the capitol. Her other interests include skiing, skating, swimming, and sailing.

We sincerely hope that Elisa-bet enjoyed her year with us as much as it pleased us to have her.
